Executive summary

The Student Attendance Policy aims to inform students and staff of the rules and processes that apply to student attendance at scheduled classes and activities.

Reason for review (if unscheduled)

Change to attendance monitoring procedure
 Introduction of online classes

Summary of changes:

1. Section requiring co-delivery partners to provide attendance report to LCBA deleted (LCBA can now access attendance data directly through PowerBI)
2. Clarification that 'attendance' extends to participation in online and/or asynchronous activities
3. Changes after feedback from LTQC:
 - a. Definition of 'participation' added
 - b. Specify that only students of VET and Bachelor courses must attend scheduled classes (see 5.1) (students of Undergraduate Certificates, for example, may not be required to attend scheduled classes).

Recommendation

It is recommended that the house(s) of review passes the following resolution:

The VQMC/LTQC recommends the Student Attendance Policy to the Academic Board for approval.

It is recommended that the approval body passes the following resolution (via noting):

The Academic Board approves the Student Attendance Policy.

STUDENT ATTENDANCE POLICY

1. Purpose and Objectives

- 1.1 The purpose of this policy is to inform students, teaching and academic staff of the rules and processes that apply to student attendance at scheduled classes and activities.

2. Scope

- 2.1 The purpose of this policy is to inform students, teaching and academic staff of the rules and processes that apply to student attendance at scheduled classes and activities.

3. Legislative Context

- National Code for Providers of Education and Training for Overseas Students 2018
- Higher Education Standards Framework 2015
- Standards for RTOs 2015

4. Policy Statement

- 4.1 Students' academic success is linked to high rates of attendance at scheduled classes and learning activities and therefore students are required to punctually attend scheduled classes and learning activities.

5. Policy

- 5.1 Students of culinary (Vocational Education) programs and Bachelor (Higher Education) courses are required to punctually attend all (100%) scheduled classes, and learning and assessment activities.
- 5.1.1 Students who are unable to attend class, or who need to arrive at class late or leave class early, must notify the campus administration of their intended absence prior to the commencement of the class.
- 5.1.2 Students must provide documentary evidence supporting the reason for any absence or lateness (e.g. a medical certificate) to campus administration prior to or no later than 24 hours after returning to class.
- 5.1.3 Failure to attend any scheduled class related to a unit of competency, including theory, demonstration, practical, activity or field trip, will result in an absence being recorded.
- 5.1.4 Students who are late for a scheduled class may not be admitted to class until after a scheduled break or at a time when minimal disruption will be caused to other members of the class.
- 5.1.5 Where a student is unable to attend scheduled classes for an extended period of time due to compassionate or compelling circumstances, the student should apply for a leave of absence in writing (see Enrolment Policy).
- 5.1.6 Students may be required to undertake learning and assessment activities outside of their scheduled course contact hours where their absence from classes impacts on their ability to complete the requirements for a unit or qualification.
- 5.1.7 Students unable to attend work during Work Integrated Learning must notify the Industry Engagement team (see Work Integrated Learning Policy).

STUDENT ATTENDANCE POLICY

- 5.1.8 Students studying a work placement unit, who are returning to the workplace after an absence for medical reasons, must provide medical clearance from a Registered Health Practitioners stating they are fit to return to work to the Industry Engagement team.
 - 5.1.9 LCBA only recognises medical certificates issued by Registered Health Practitioners.
 - 5.1.10 Students of culinary (Vocational Education) programs with more than four (4) absences at scheduled demonstration and practical classes within a specific stage will not be permitted to attempt the Le Cordon Bleu final practical examinations.
 - 5.1.11 Students of culinary (Vocational Education) programs missing a demonstration class will not be allowed into the corresponding practical class and one (1) absence will be recorded.
 - 5.1.12 Students of culinary (Vocational Education) programs who do not arrive on time for classes will be recorded as late. Four (4) late attendances will be taken to equal one (1) absence record.
 - 5.1.13 Where evidence is provided of compassionate and compelling circumstances it will be taken into consideration when making decisions about eligibility to sit final practical examinations (culinary students only), academic progress and appeals of academic progress.
- 5.2 Students of all programs and courses are required to participate in learning activities, including non-scheduled activities such as self-directed online study.
 - 5.3 Where relevant, students' attendance and participation will be taken into consideration in determinations regarding academic progress and appeals (see Academic Progress Policy (VET), Academic Progress Policy (HE)).
 - 5.4 LCBA will monitor the attendance of students and will notify and counsel students at risk of failing to meet attendance requirements.

6. Roles and Responsibilities

Roles	Responsibilities
Registrar	Overseeing the effective implementation of this Policy
Lecturers	Monitor and record student attendance
Campus administration	Report student attendance to LCBA
Student Services	Contact and counsel students with poor attendance and implement student welfare procedures as required

7. Definitions

'Compassionate and Compelling Circumstances' are those usually beyond the control of the student and are considered to have an impact on the student's ability to successfully progress through their program of study. The staff of LCBA and its delivery partners will use their professional judgement to assess each case where students make a request on the grounds of compassionate or compelling circumstances and will consider documentary evidence provided by students to support their claims. These circumstances could include:

- serious illness or injury, where a medical certificate states that the student was unable to attend classes;
- bereavement of close family members such as parents or grandparents;
- a major political upheaval or natural disaster in the home country requiring emergency travel, and this has impacted on the student's ability to attend scheduled course contact hours.

'Monitoring Period' is the period of time over which a student's rate of attendance is monitored.

'Registered Health Practitioners' are health practitioners who are registered on the Register of Practitioners, which is maintained by the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency.

'Participation' in learning activities is judged by considering factors including:

- time spent accessing Engage (Learning Management System)
- the extent to which students are prepared for class discussions and activities
- meaningful contributions to class discussions and/or forums
- completion of readings, research or homework
- responsiveness to requests from lecturers for updates on progress, support needs, meeting requests etc.

9. Implementation

9.1 The Registrar is responsible for ensuring that future major changes to this policy will be accompanied by a completed Implementation Plan, counter signed by the Dean and presented with the policy to the Academic Board.

9.2 The Implementation Plan will include a Communication Strategy that identifies key stakeholders and the requirements for effectively implementing and monitoring this policy.

10. Procedure

10.1 Lecturers record student attendance daily at all scheduled classes and learning and assessment activities using the LCBA student learning management system (LMS).

10.2 The attendance of students on their Work Integrated Learning (WIL) or Industry Placements (IP) will be monitored according to the Work Integrated Learning Policy.

STUDENT ATTENDANCE POLICY

- 10.3 Students at risk of not meeting attendance requirements will be contacted in writing by LCBA Student Services at the end of each monitoring period; they will be counselled in order to identify reasons for their poor attendance, and possible solutions.
- 10.4 If attempts to contact a student fail and LCBA is concerned for the student's welfare, efforts will be made to establish the student's whereabouts and well-being (see Student Welfare Policy).
