RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING FOR INDUSTRY PLACEMENTS

Industry placements, internships and other WIL-related activities associated with different units in a program may lead to recognition of prior learning granted in the form of satisfying part, or all, of WIL placement duration requirements provided that these activities qualify as industry experience and contribute to the attainment of the learning outcomes, or requirements, of the WIL unit. Students will still be required to complete assessments for WIL units. Industry experiences conducted outside of a program of study must be validated, and supporting information verified, for students to be eligible for advanced standing, credit transfer, or recognition of prior learning.

LCBA Course	Recognition for Prior Learning
Bachelor of Business [CRS1401111]	WORK102 Industry Experience A – placement duration only
Bachelor of Business (International Hotel Management) [CRS1200375]	WIL101 Work Integrated Learning 101 – placement duration only
Bachelor of Business (International Restaurant Management) [CRS1200373]	WIL101 Work Integrated Learning 101 – placement duration only

Recognition of prior learning for industry experience is independent from, and in addition to, any credit for prior learning granted for the selected course. The exemption to undertake a placement does not directly reduce the duration of a course as students are required to complete the unit assessments; however, students may be permitted to undertake concurrent units, thereby allowing a higher study workload for the trimester and reducing the overall course duration.

Students exempted from the placement duration are liable for the full tuition fee for the unit.

For more information, refer to the LCBA Work-Integrated Learning Policy.

FURTHER INTERNAL PATHWAYS

Note: Students who are eligible for advanced standing due to completion of a cognate Bachelor degree should consider the offer in light of any potential impact on their student visa requirements.
