Why study with us?

Le Cordon Bleu is a world-renowned leader in culinary arts and hospitality management education. From humble beginnings 130 years ago in Paris, the institution has made its mark across the globe with state-of-the-art schools in Europe, USA, Asia and Australia. Since opening its first Australian school in 1992, Le Cordon Bleu Australia has trained thousands of aspiring chefs, business owners and hoteliers to be successful industry professionals. With programs in cuisine, pâtisserie, hospitality management and business, graduates are equipped with all the skills needed to take their careers to new and exciting heights.

Le Cordon Bleu Australia prides itself on employing educators who are at the top of their field to ensure the education students receive is engaging, contemporary and of the highest quality. Academic materials are based on the latest research and incorporate the perfect blend of knowledge, innovation and practical skill development.

Combining prestigious work-based learning programs and exclusive industry partnerships, Le Cordon Bleu Australia gives students the opportunity to start building their industry reputation and professional networks, before they even graduate. From campus to workplace, these hands-on industry experiences allow students to reach their full potential and apply their knowledge and skills to a real work environment.

Upon graduating, culinary students not only gain an Australian qualification, but receive a La Fondation Le Cordon Bleu international award that allows them to travel and work just about anywhere in the world.

School of Culinary Arts & Sciences

Le Cordon Bleu Australia offers a range of cuisine and pâtisserie programs designed to develop skilled chefs and industry leaders of the future.

Using the highest quality ingredients, the latest techniques and a foundation of tradition, our world-class School of Culinary Arts & Sciences programs offer the perfect blend of knowledge and practical learning to give you that competitive edge.

The world is your oyster.

Diplôme CordonTec

Are you passionate about French cuisine and dreaming of working in a restaurant, cafe or hotel? Look no further than Diplôme CordonTec, a new training program to hit Australian shores after huge success internationally. Designed to equip you with the skills, knowledge and hands-on experience in culinary arts, Diplôme CordonTec is your passport to comprehensive training in not one, but four disciplines – cuisine, pâtisserie, boulangerie and service.

Why choose Diplôme CordonTec?

The Diplôme CordonTec is a perfect blend of our foundation programs, giving you the expertise to work in top-tier hotels, restaurants and cafés in several different areas of hospitality. The program is structured to deliver intensive and immersive training through a blend of face-to-face and online learning within a relatively short period, facilitating quicker entry into the job market. International influence plays a key role in this program, integrating global culinary components alongside core foundational skills. This ensures students gain expertise in both local and international cuisines.

What will you learn?

Diplôme CordonTec follows the educational philosophy of Le Cordon Bleu, delivering a robust curriculum that focuses on technical proficiency and culinary artistry. Here's a glimpse of what you'll master:

- Cuisine: Perfect your skills in mise-en-place, menu design, international cuisines, plant-based cooking and the technical preparation of French classics like sauces, soups, broths and meats.
- Pâtisserie: Dive into the world of French pastries, mastering techniques for bread, cakes, creams and viennoiseries. You'll become proficient in creating decadent desserts, chocolates, plant-based sweets and more.
- Boulangerie: Gain expertise in breadmaking, from traditional French loaves to natural yeast creations.
- Service: Understand the nuances of restaurant service, customer service and hygiene protocols to ensure a top-notch experience for guests.

The Diplôme CordonTec is non-accredited. International students are welcome to enrol provided they are proficient in English, however this program is not eligible for student visa applications.

Create your own unique study plan for your degree with our 'building block' model. Each subject is a building block towards achieving the overall course learning outcomes.

Start with a common foundation unit, then choose any combination of Majors, Minors and Electives that work best for you.

The scheduling of units allows you to take catch-up units or advance your studies more quickly if you are doing well.

Minors are formed by selecting three units from any Major, and Electives can be individual units from any Major.

With a range of Majors, Minors and Electives to choose from, you can customise the degree outcomes to suit your aspirations. An individual study plan will be developed at the time of application.

If for any reason you need to exit early, depending on the course, you can receive a Diploma or Associate Degree in Business on completion of the required subjects.

Industry Engagement

Bridging the gap between your studies and dream career, our Industry Engagement team nurtures relationships with industry partners and actively seeks work opportunities for current students. The Industry Engagement team supports your journey in Work Integrated Learning (WIL) with placements, specialised workshops, one-on-one coaching sessions, career pathway consultations and career exhibitions. The WIL program enables you to apply the skills and knowledge learned on campus to the workplace.

With placements of up to six months, you will gain industry experience and build your network before you even graduate, empowering you to stand out from the crowd. With Le Cordon Bleu's extensive network of industry partners, including luxury establishments and international brands, students can undertake WIL just about anywhere in the world, from Chef Hat Award restaurants to five-star hotels and resorts.

At Le Cordon Bleu Australia, we provide our students with essential employability skills to help them succeed in their future careers. Our Industry Engagement team works with some of the best industry partners in the country and overseas to source industry placement opportunities. In addition, we provide a unique and personalised service to each student in preparation for or during their industry placement.

- Dr. Cristina Rodrigues, Head of Industry Engagement and Alumni

What our industry partners say about us:

Matt Boyle
Head Chef, Attica Restaurant, Melbourne

"All the students that have come to Attica are willing to learn and very determined to get the most out of their time at Attica. The six months go by pretty quickly, so they definitely have their heads down and are willing to push themselves."

Philippe Kronberg
Hotel General Manager, Shangri-La, Sydney

"Having students is very valuable as we nurture them along their career path and our teams, in turn, gain a deeper understanding of current trends in hospitality education. The hotel also identifies talent and supports ambitious career starters by encouraging students to join us as colleagues after graduation."

Matilda Smith
Owner and Founder, Penny for Pound, Melbourne

"We've got a couple of people who started with us as industry placement students and are now full-time employees and they're really valued members of the team. To anyone thinking of studying with Le Cordon Bleu, I would say give it a go. Take everything in that you can, not just from the kitchen but from the relationships that you make there as well."

Be part of our growing alumni network

One of the great benefits studying with Le Cordon Bleu is that once you graduate, you become part of our international Le Cordon Bleu alumni network. It is a relationship that exists for life both on a personal and professional level. Your membership allows you to stay connected with friends made during your studies and partake in exclusive alumni events, masterclasses or industry talks. Whether you are about to start your career, change careers, take up promotional opportunities in new locations, or go on exciting gastronomic adventures, as a Le Cordon Bleu alumni you will always feel connected and supported. Melbourne

Melbourne is ranked as Australia's most livable city – and it's easy to see why. Often referred to as a foodie's paradise, Melbourne is famed for its thriving restaurant and café culture, rich art and music scene, cultural diversity and bayside location. Plus, it's home to many of Australia's acclaimed chefs, offering cuisines from across the world.

This eclectic Australian city has something for everyone and, with two Le Cordon Bleu campuses in Moorabbin and Chadstone, there's never a dull moment on and off campus. Le Cordon Bleu Moorabbin is home to our world-class Culinary Arts and Sciences school, just a half-hour drive from the Melbourne CBD. Here you will find fully-equipped training kitchens, a bakery, restaurant facilities and student accommodation close by.

Our Higher Education degrees are taught out of our Chadstone campus, surrounded by parks and green, open spaces. With a huge range of cafés, bars, shops and transport options, Chadstone provides the perfect space to inspire your hospitality dream.
