GENERAL INFORMATION

FEES
All certificate and diploma program courses require an application fee at the time of registration. (Please refer to Diploma & Certificate Programs page.)

All other courses require payment in full at registration, unless indicated otherwise.

Please note that a seat in a course will not be reserved for a student unless the Institute receives the required application fee for that course. All courses have limited enrollment.

WAITING LIST
Due to high demand, the Institute reserves the right to place students on a waiting list, even if they have already registered in other courses. Places will not be held unless applications are complete, including the application fees. The application form enclosed with this brochure must accompany your registration, along with the application fee required.

All fees are quoted in Canadian dollars. Fees are payable in Canadian funds.

LE CORDON BLEU OTTAWA Culinary Arts Institute reserves the right to increase course fees without notice.

REFUNDS/CANCELLATIONS
For information regarding cancellations and refunds see Sections 25 through 33 of the regulations made under the Private Career Colleges Act which can be found with the application form.

Should a student wish to cancel his/her registration in a course(s), the Institute requires written notice a minimum of 6 weeks prior to the course start date. If a student re-enrols in the course, they will be charged an additional $500.

The administration reserves the right to cancel or modify courses at any time. In the event a course is cancelled by the Institute, any application fee or course fees paid will be refunded in full, or transferred to another course selected by the student.

Any fees paid by a student whose application is rejected by the Institute will be refunded.
APPLICATIONS
Applications for diploma and certificate program courses must be accompanied by: a photocopy of your ID card, a résumé, personal statement, proof of high school completion (or equivalent) and the appropriate application fee (see Fees). Students with Internet access may apply online by visiting our website, www.lcbottawa.com. Please note, this option requires a credit card payment.

Once the Institute has accepted an application, a registration package will be sent to the student. This package contains information about the orientation session, housing options, the Academic Policy and Procedures Manual and the enrolment agreement. It also contains a Proof of Student Status letter which can be used to apply for a student visa, if required.

To ensure a place in the course desired, it is strongly recommended that applications be received by the Institute a minimum of 4 months before the applicant’s first course begins. LE CORDON BLEU is prohibited by law from guaranteeing a place to any student or prospective student.

ACADEMIC POLICY AND PROCEDURES MANUAL
Students will be sent a copy of the Institute’s Academic Policy and Procedures Manual upon registration. A signed acknowledgement of these policies must be returned to the Institute’s administration prior to course commencement.

TOURS/VISITS
Prospective students are invited to visit the Institute for a guided tour of our facilities and to attend a demonstration class. The Institute is open Monday through Friday. Please call ahead to make an appointment with one of our Admission Officers.

EXAMS/ATTENDANCE
Written exams and a final practical exam form an integral part of the student’s evaluation. Students must successfully complete the final exam to obtain the certificate or diploma for that course, which is required before taking the next level. Attendance is mandatory; students who have more than the allowable number of absences will not be permitted to take the final exam.

ORIENTATION SESSION
New students will be notified of an orientation session during which students will:

- Be introduced to staff and instructors;
- Be given a review and asked to sign the Academic Policy and Procedures Manual as well as the Administrative Policies & Procedures;
- Tour the facilities;
- Receive their equipment and uniform items;
- Have their photograph taken for their student identification card, and;
- Confirm their contact information and registration status with the administration.
