Bienvenue!

With over 120 years of teaching experience, Le Cordon Bleu is well-established as the global leader in culinary, wine and hospitality education. As we continuously adapt to meet the changing demands of the industry, our philosophy of achieving excellence remains the same.

Today, our international network comprises of more than 35 institutes in 20 countries with over 20,000 students graduating each year.

Le Cordon Bleu offers a wide range of Diploma, Bachelor and Masters programmes, including the finest education in food, beverage, hospitality and tourism management. The reputation of Le Cordon Bleu has endured by actively keeping our courses up-to-date and industry-relevant using innovative new technologies. Our academic programmes are constantly adapted to the future needs of hospitality services, particularly through our privileged partnerships with governments, universities, and specialist organisations.

Le Cordon Bleu has made a worldwide contribution to the conservation of the art of French living and French culture, by setting standards in both the culinary arts and the hospitality industry. In recent years, our activities have diversified into culinary publications, gourmet products and professional cooking equipment distribution, restaurants and even participating in television series and films.

We invite you to share our knowledge, vision, and passion for these dynamic, ever-changing industries.

Amitiés Gourmandes,

André J. Cointreau
President and CEO, Le Cordon Bleu
About Le Cordon Bleu

1895 French journalist Marthe Distel starts a culinary magazine, La Cuisinière Cordon Bleu. The first class is taught at Le Cordon Bleu Paris in October.

1897 Le Cordon Bleu Paris welcomes its first Russian student.

1905 Le Cordon Bleu Paris welcomes its first Japanese student.

1927 The London Daily Mail newspaper describes a visit to Le Cordon Bleu Paris: “It's not unusual for as many as eight different nationalities to be represented in the classes”.

1931 Rosemary Hume and Dione Lucas, who trained at Le Cordon Bleu Paris under the guidance of chef Henri-Paul Pellaprat, open L'Ecole du Petit Cordon Bleu in London. Four years later, they go on to open the restaurant Au Petit Cordon Bleu, also in London.

1942 Dione Lucas opens Le Cordon Bleu School and Restaurant in New York. She also authors the bestseller The Cordon Bleu Cook Book and becomes the first woman to have a televised cooking show.

1948 Le Cordon Bleu is accredited by the Pentagon for the professional training of young GI’s after their tour of duty. As a former member of the OSS, Julia Child qualifies and enrols at Le Cordon Bleu Paris.

1953 Le Cordon Bleu London creates several dishes, which are served to foreign dignitaries at the coronation luncheon of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II. Among them is the now renowned Coronation Chicken.

1991 Le Cordon Bleu Japan opens in Tokyo and later in Kobe. It is known as “Little France in Japan”. Le Cordon Bleu Paris and Le Cordon Bleu London join forces to become a united brand.

1995 Le Cordon Bleu Paris celebrates its 100th anniversary as an ambassador of the culinary arts. For the first time ever, the Chinese authorities of the Shanghai district send chefs abroad for training at Le Cordon Bleu Paris.

2000 - 2006 Le Cordon Bleu opens in Korea, Mexico and in Peru becoming the first culinary institute in the country. A partnership is launched in Thailand with Dusit International.

2009 Le Cordon Bleu institutes worldwide participate in the launch of the movie Julie and Julia.

2011 Le Cordon Bleu Madrid opens in partnership with Francisco de Vitoria University.

2012 Inauguration of the new Le Cordon Bleu London building in Bloomsbury. Le Cordon Bleu opens its doors in New Zealand as well as in Malaysia in partnership with Sunway University.

2013 Le Cordon Bleu officially opens in Istanbul in partnership with Ozyegin University. Le Cordon Bleu Thailand is awarded the title of best culinary school in Asia.

2014 Le Cordon Bleu schools worldwide participate in the launch of the movie The Hundred-Foot Journey. Le Cordon Bleu launches Bachelors in Hotel & Restaurant management in India.

2015 The 120 years anniversary is celebrated around the world. Le Cordon Bleu opens its first institute in Shanghai, China. Le Cordon Bleu Peru receives University status. Le Cordon Bleu opens in Santiago de Chile in partnership with Finis Terrae University.

2017 Le Cordon Bleu London partners with Birkbeck, University of London, to deliver a Bachelor of Business Administration in Culinary Industry Management.

2018 Le Cordon Bleu Brazil opens campuses in Rio de Janeiro and São Paulo. The network continues to develop internationally and diversify its activities by broadening the selection of available programmes, and establishing private and public partnerships.
The Le Cordon Bleu Network

The Le Cordon Bleu network is committed to innovation and best practice in gastronomy, hospitality and management and honours its commitments through an expanding international network of teaching, learning and research conducted in conjunction with the development of products and services.

Student experience

Student assistants
As part of their curriculum, students’ will be offered the opportunity to assist our chefs during demonstrations, culinary or wine events and festivals we are participating in. This experience will enable them to see behind the scenes and gain a little more insight into the life of a professional chef.

Le Petit Journal
Each month, Le Cordon Bleu London produces Le Petit Journal, a student-specific newsletter which is designed to help students make the most of their time in London. The newsletter showcases news and school highlights, as well as sharing insider tips on the latest food trends across the capital.

Library
Students have access to a range of culinary, hospitality, wine and management books, which are regularly updated to reflect the changing needs of the industry.

Guest chef demonstrations and culinary conferences
In order to enrich our students’ learning, we regularly host fascinating culinary conferences with key players in the food industry and invite esteemed experts who have shaped the culinary scene in the UK and internationally. See lcbl.eu/events for more information.

Student events
Students have the opportunity to participate in an array of events at the school. From the Student Social Event, where they are able to meet, discuss and taste produce from different suppliers, to the Superior student events such as the World Cuisine Degustation and Afternoon Tea, where they can demonstrate their culinary expertise.

Rooftop garden
Our campus has a rooftop garden where herbs are grown to be used in classes, and bees are kept for honey production. We also have an Urban Cultivator in which we grow healthy and organic herbs, and microgreens.

Café Le Cordon Bleu
Located on our campus and acting as a ‘window’ into the world of Le Cordon Bleu London, our Café showcases a range of the finest French pâtisseries, viennoiseries, gourmet sandwiches, hot dishes and chef’s specials available in the capital. Our products are crafted daily in the school’s dedicated bakery kitchen and can be enjoyed with one of our specially selected wines or craft beers, and are a reflection of the different types of techniques taught to our students.

La Boutique
Le Cordon Bleu chefs have selected a range of the highest quality culinary products such as gourmet food, professional equipment, cooking utensils, culinary gifts and books. We offer an array of refined food products presented in elegant packaging to delight the culinary enthusiast or experienced cook, which can be used to create a number of dishes. Our range of professional equipment includes forged knives, kitchen utensils and accessories alongside a carefully selected line of original gifts developed around the art of living.

“The course gave me a solid foundation in the most important aspects of the wine industry and I build on what I was taught a little bit more every day.”

Below are testimonials from some of our Le Cordon Bleu London alumni, highlighting the diversity of roles achievable after graduating.
Diploma in Culinary Management

The Diploma in Culinary Management has been designed to provide aspiring managers and business owners with the relevant skill set to lead successful kitchens and food businesses in an increasingly competitive world. The focus of the programme is to provide advanced practical and technical culinary education, alongside entrepreneurship and management studies to enhance the students’ existing cuisine and pâtisserie skills.

Taught through demonstrations and practical sessions, students will develop their creativity and innovation in line with modern food trends.
Culinary Innovation
As the core module within the Diploma, this element provides students with an in-depth knowledge of innovative culinary techniques including sensory evaluation, evolution of world cuisine, pâtisserie skills, recipe and menu development.

Gastronomy and Food Trends
Students will evaluate the cultural and social dimensions of global food trends, restaurant planning as well as food and wine menu design. Topics include: influence of social trends on diet; food sourcing; sustainability; evolution of gastronomy and the development of eating habits across cultures.

Menu Concepts and Marketing
Teaches the importance of strategic marketing within the food industry examining how global trends influence customer behaviour. Students will gain an understanding of all aspects of the marketing mix: advertising, PR, branding and social media.

Wine and Beverages
Students will gain an insight into wine selection, wine service, food and wine pairing and management of wine. Taught by our wine experts, students will be introduced to wine in the context of a food business.

Food and Beverage Cost Control
Students will be taught the core aspects of cost control, planning, optimisation of resources, menu management and menu engineering to enable an operation to run efficiently, effectively and profitably.

Professional Kitchen Management
Effective kitchen management demands skills in team building and communication, this element of the diploma will provide students with these skills in order to operate a profitable and efficient kitchen.

Food Hygiene and Safety
With food safety being of principal importance within any food service operation, this unit covers the standards of food handling for culinary professionals. The unit certifies students to Level 3 Award Food Safety in Catering, awarded by the The Royal Society for Public Health (RSPH).

Business Environment
Introduces students to the process of writing a business profile for their food business concept. Students will view food business through the eyes of an entrepreneur. Within the unit, students will design a business strategy for their food concept, consider legal requirements and gain a thorough understanding of how to design an effective business model.

Practical information

UK Visas and Immigration
Tier 4 Sponsor Licence
The Home Office has registered Le Cordon Bleu London as a Tier 4 Sponsor, which authorises our sponsorship of international students for a Tier 4 Visa.

Accreditation and Educational Oversight
Quality Assurance Agency for Higher Education (QAA)
Le Cordon Bleu London is subject to educational oversight by the Quality Assurance Agency for Higher Education (QAA) under the UK Visas and Immigration’s Tier 4 sponsorship requirements.

British Accreditation Council
Le Cordon Bleu London has been accredited by the British Accreditation Council for Independent Further and Higher Education since 2008. BAC accreditation is recognised the world over by students, agents and government officials as the clearest mark of educational quality in the private sector, and is recognised by the UK Visas & Immigration as a qualifying requirement for institutions wishing to enrol students on Short-Term Study Visas.

NCFE
Le Cordon Bleu certificates and Diplomas are accredited as “Customised Qualifications” by national awarding organisation NCFE. These bespoke qualifications are unique to Le Cordon Bleu and do not sit on a national framework. NCFE accreditation ensures that the qualifications have measurable learning outcomes benchmarked against the Regulated Qualifications Framework (RQF) level descriptors, and gives assurance that the content of our qualifications are of a high standard, meeting the rigorous quality assurance requirements of a national awarding organisation.

Self-directed study
Programmes at Le Cordon Bleu London include an amount of self-directed study. This is the amount of time students should reasonably expect to be putting in during the course to prepare for classes, complete assignments and read around the subject, not under the immediate guidance or supervision of a lecturer.
